Ian Hill doesn't just talk the talk, he walks the walk. From his humble beginnings as an adopted at-risk youth, to running a multi-million dollar business operation, spearheading first-of-their-kind schools and projects, launching a philanthropic fund for homeless youth or initiating an outreach project in Africa, he has been recognized for being a catalyst for positive change throughout North America.

This breakfast is part of the Let Them be Kids National Initiative proudly brought to you by The Emmanuel Foundation, The Changing Point-Canada
