

Presents

The Public Leaders Forum

Leading-edge communities don't happen without leading-edge community leaders. Created specifically for elected officials and public leaders, this event gathers the region's leadership for a day of education and conversation.

Friday, May 26th at The Clarendville Inn

9:30am – 12:30pm

$25 per person

All Proceeds benefit the Moores Road Playground Project

To register, call 709-466-7731

Elected officials and Public Leaders will leave with usable and tangible tools including:

- The common elements of successful community leadership
- A community development planning model
- Strategies for engaging and building community
- A personal toolkit of facilitative tools for successful community development
- Techniques to engage and involve citizenry.

Forum Facilitator...

Brenda Herchmer, Manager The Centre for Community Leadership at Niagara College, a one stop resource centre for leadership development of elected officials and community leaders. The Centre was acknowledged by ACCC in 2002 as an "exemplary practice in community development" and was a finalist for the 2003 prestigious Peter F. Drucker Innovation Award.

Featured Speaker...

Ian Hill, President of The Changing Point-Canada. From his humble beginnings as an adopted at-risk youth, to running a multi-million dollar operation with 1,000 employees, spearheading first-of-their-kind schools, launching a philanthropic fund for homeless youth or initiating an outreach project in Africa, he has been recognized for being a catalyst for positive change throughout North America.

This seminar is part of the Let Them Be Kids National Initiative proudly brought to you by The Emmanuel Foundation, The Changing Point- Canada, Little Tikes,
The Canadian Parks and Recreation Association and the Niagara College Centre for Community Leadership